

Typographical Error in Employee Registration

The typographical error in the employee registration has been fixed and released to the system.

On the employee portal registration, the error notice or error message now appears correctly as "You have entered an invalid Employee Number or Email Address. Please try again."

